Central High School District Referendum Passes by Wide Vote

Board to Seek Loan at Once; Architects At Work

Sixteen hundred and seventy-five voters cast ballots at the second referendum on the proposition to build a new high school for the district at Paddock Lake. The measure was put over by a majority of 400 votes on both the proposition to purchase the land and the provision for borrowing money with which to erect a building and equip it.

The total for purchasing the site was 1050 for and 613 against; while the vote for allowing the board to borrow the money necessary was 1032 for and 632 against.

Board members said today that the architects were already at work on the plans for the new building, and that representatives of the board would appear before the proper state authorities either tomorrow or Monday to apply for the loan. They added that no hitch was expected, since the loan had already been approved and that state school authorities were heartily in favor of the projected building plan.

Clarence Schulz, board member, said that the school would be erected and put into operation as soon as possible, in order to avoid payment of tuition fees at the various other high schools longer than absolutely necessary.

Fields Store Building Fire Spoils Good Record Of Antioch Fire Dept.

The Fields store building fire spoiled an otherwise good record for the Antioch fire department during the year 1950.

The $100,400 fire skyrocketed the village's loss where otherwise the loss for the entire year would have been but $595 on a valuation of $251,000.

The department had 78 calls in 1950, according to the records of Secretary Clarence Shultis.

Of this number 45 were in the district outside of Antioch and included 17 buildings, 32 grass, 4 car, 1 boat, and 1 dredge fire. The property value involved was $85,900 and the total loss was $12,570.

There were 26 calls in the village of which 15 were fires at buildings, 9 grass and 2 truck fires. The property value was $373,850 and the loss $100,995.

Special Board Meeting To Enact Ordinance to Plan Civilian Defense

Village President James McMillen has called a special meeting of the board of trustees for this evening in adopting an ordinance for civilian defense.

With powers of the ordinance Mayor McMillen will be able to go to Chicago Monday in attending a meeting of mayors of the Chicago area in planning the coordination of civilian defense measures.

McMillen said he will announce the director of civilian defense for Antioch following the meeting tonight.

Antioch is regarded as in the area vulnerable in bombing attempts of the enemy. Besides selecting the best shelters for the people, the defense committee will disseminate information on what to do in event of attack through the atom bomb, and how to handle crowds in event there is an exodus from the industrial area of Chicago.

Duane L. Andrews, 19, and Ronald Raska, of Lake Villa enlisted in the air force on Jan. 11, and Gerald Crichton, 17, Antioch High school graduate, enlisted on Jan. 6.

They are being sent to Lackland, Tex.

Marvin Holdorf of Cross Lake, is also in the group.

Sgt. Lihn said that enlistments are piling up and it is a case of first come, first processed. He said that the men may sign up now for physicals to be taken later.

Eric Lubkeman of Antioch recently went into service in the draft.

Rep. Marguerite Church Was Better Vote Getter Than Her Late Husband

Mrs. Marguerite Stitt Church, Republican Representative in Congress for the Illinois 13th District, has impressively demonstrated her ability as a vote getter. According to national returns, now official and complete except in minor details, the plurality of 91,563 rolled up by the Evanston congresswoman stands out as the greatest margin earned by any candidate running for the House from a fixed congressional district in 1950.

Mrs. Church not only topped all candidates for the House in the 82nd Congress. By amassing 140,750 votes against 49,187 for her Democrat opponent—almost a 3-to-1 edge she achieved a feat of vote getting seldom equalled or exceeded in modern American politics. The plurality is the highest granted a Republican candidate in any Illinois district since 1924. It is also the greatest congressional district margin (including Democrat pluralities) in the state since 1936.

Mrs. Church's plurality exceeds that of any candidate of either party in Illinois in an off-year election since 1924. A check of earlier official records may prove that hers is an all-time record for off-year elections in Illinois. On a nationwide basis, and discounting elections in which candidates were unopposed, nominated by both parties, or running at large, Mrs. Church's plurality has been equalled by no other congressional candidate since 1942.

Of special interest to voters of the Illinois 13th district is the fact that Mrs. Church's plurality of 91,563 exceeds by 25,925 the plurality received in the 1948 presidential election by the late Congressman Ralph E. Church, to whose seat in Congress Mrs. Church succeeds. The total 1948 vote in the Thirteenth District was 182,318. In 1950, the total vote was 189,937, an increase of 7,619. A comparison of the increase in total vote with the far greater increase in plurality over 1948 suggests that a great many voters crossed party lines to support Mrs. Church.

Lake Villa Canvassers Ready to Begin March Of Dimes Drive Monday

Twenty-five women volunteers attended a meeting at the Lake Villa fire station Tuesday evening in receiving instructions for their work in collecting money for the polio fund in the March of Dimes drive starting Monday.

Warren Sheehan, chairman of Lake Villa township, arranged and conducted the meeting.

Edward Gresens, area chairman, explained the need for additional funds for 1951 and then conducted an open discussion among the workers. They decided upon a public social event in the near future to obtain additional money for the fund.

Heretofore Lake Villa has not had a quota and very little house to house canvassing. In 1950, $455 was raised. This year the goal is $2,700 and the workers agreed that this would be reached.

Chairman Sheehan said that he can be contacted by those wishing to volunteer their services as canvassers, and will accept checks from those who may have been late in sending them to the special advance gift fund.

Allendale Beats Prospect Heights

The Allendale Tigers journeyed to Prospect Heights last Friday in taking on an inexperienced Prospect team and came home with their fourth victory of the season. The score was 51 to 15.

Playing a superior floor game and employing a devastating fast break the Tigers jumped to an 18 to 0 first quarter lead. The reserves, who saw much action, took charge from here on was led by George Shipperley, were ahead at half time 27 to 5. The Tigers had little trouble scoring at will and led by a 42 to 9 score at the end of the third quarter. John Kelly took scoring honors for the Tigers, garnering 22 points. Al Dennis scored all of his team's total of 15 points for Prospect.

The Allendale Juniors also found the sailing very smooth as they rode easily to a 63 to 12 victory to remain undefeated in the current season. The scoring for the Juniors was well distributed with Bill Cassidy netting 16 points while his teammate and captain of the Juniors Dick Meyer scored 15.

The next game for the Tigers will be Friday when they travel to Round Lake to take on a rugged Round Lake Grade school five.

Antioch Seeks Victory Over Wauconda After Beating Ela 56 to 45

Antioch High will meet Wauconda here in basketball tomorrow night and will attempt to continue its march up the ladder of the Northwest conference.

The Sequoits started their ascent last Friday night when they came from behind in winning from Ela-Vernon here 56 to 45.

At one time in the last stages of the game the score was 42-all, but Antioch stiffened her defense to the point that the Lake Zurich boys went to pieces and she scored 14 points while Ela was scoring but three points.

If the Sequoits win tomorrow night's game she will be tied with Wauconda for fifth place.

The sophomores beat the Ela-Vernon sophomores 22 to 18 to claim a third place in the conference underclassman standing. The Pa-pooses scored 10 points to Ela-Vernon's two in the fourth quarter to win.

Unable to score over the heads of their larger opponents, Polley's men did some fast breaking in getting through the defense. Bruce Stahmer was high point man, scoring 10 points.

Another Lake Villa man, Clifford Cotton, 38, was involved in an accident later in the day at Gurnee and was taken to Victory Memorial hospital for treatment.

A cinder-truck, driven by J. T. Corrigan, 29, North Chicago, skidded on ice at the Milwaukee underpass of Grand ave., and collided with Cotton's car, turning over. Corrigan suffered head injuries.

Hobby Became Big Business

Chicken raising, started as a hobby by William C. Grunow on his 500 acre estate at Lake Geneva has become big business for him with 14 Chicago stores and a new store under the name of Val-Lo-Will, at 228 S. Genesee st., Waukegan.

Two hundred people are employed at his Lake Geneva plant, and everything of the chicken is used—even the crow of the rooster and the cluck of the hens, for they are used as radio signatures.

The Wrong Doorstep

When prices go up, a great many people still place the blame on the wrong doorstep. For instance, it is commonplace for consumers to take out their resentment on retailers. Not so very long ago, consumers actually picketted retail stores demanding that the price of this commodity or that be reduced at once by some arbitrary figure. No one involved seemed to understand that the retailer makes, as profit, only pennies out of each dollar spent in his store, and that if he cut prices as demanded he'd soon be bankrupt.

As a matter of fact, the retailer is as much interested as anyone else in keeping prices down. During a recent period, as an example, increases in retail prices ran substantially below the increases in wholesale prices and wages that had gone into effect. That was the case only because the retailer voluntarily abandoned the chance to make the maximum profit per sale, as a break on inflation in the interest of both himself and the consumer. A price structure which drives millions of people out of the market, forcing them to sharply lower their living standards, is a menace to business as well as to the country, and the retailer knows it.

Where, then does the blame for higher prices belong? Well, this quotation from the Christian Science Monitor provides part of the answer: "It has been estimated that half the cost of a loaf of bread, a ton of coal, or a pair of stockings is due to taxes on producers, processors, and sellers." And the rest of the answer is found in the fact that wasteful, excessively costly government, such as we have now, makes inflation inevitable and unavoidable.

The Low Down From Hickory Grove

Well folks, we made it again—have gone and came—drove to the city, and still alive and back home. Don't know how we ever made it. Nobody, it seems, liked it where they were or are—and of the more petulant ones that we met, few of same, I deduct, could read. Where the signs said 25 miles, they hit it off at 45.

Now—I am not hankering to move to any City—but I do figure I can dip in an ear and maybe do something towards removing the threat of a nervous crack-up that hovers over every city person. Cities are full of nice people. But even 2 in 100 there, if they are of the honk-the-stop-light type or the cut-up dido type who is half pickled with a hide half-full of gin, these 2 can make it look bad for the other 98—make the City a place to be avoided.

I marvel that we made it. But we will be rested up in a month or 2 I reckon, and full of hope that the most of the 2 in each 100 have either learned to read or have already suicided themselves—or the police will have them safe in the cooler—then w will venture out again.

Yours with the low down,
 JO SERRA

Results Are Always The Same

A distinguished physician recently made this summing up of what "political medicine," as proposed in the Administration's health bill, involves. He said: "Compulsory sickness insurance does not promote good health. The sickness rate and the duration of sickness increase; administrations become political; the physician is responsible to the government, not to the patient; diagnosis is not encouraged; treatment is stressed, but then restricted; costs are high and steadily increase; preventive medicine is neglected; malingering is encouraged; and many people entitled to it refuse it and so have to pay double for their medical care. Even if limited in extent and decentralized at the start, it inevitably leads to centralization of authority with disregard of local needs."

This is a damning and inclusive bill of particulars. Yet the record—no less than abstract theory—completely supports it. The nearest parallel to our proposed compulsory health insurance scheme is now in effect in England. And every one of the ill results described has occurred there.

The doctor's last sentence is particularly significant. The proponents of compulsory health insurance pooh-pooh the charge that it lays the basis for completely socialized medicine. Yet the fact remains that once government gets its hands on any enterprise, it soon dominates that enterprise in every conceivable way. It gives the orders. Whether it formalizes that enterprise is not the main point—the consequences are the same.

To subject the doctor to the politician, to let the bureaucrats determine the standards of medical care are sure ways to undermine any people's health.

The New Plymouth Cranbrook Four-Door Sedan

Featuring improvements which produce unprecedented roadability and riding qualities, the beautifully redesigned 1951 line of Plymouth cars have numerous mechanical improvements and have retained their traditional roominess. Shown above is Plymouth's Four-door Cranbrook sedan.

New Plymouth Combines Beauty and Riding Ease

Detroit, Mich.—Spectacular new qualities which produce driving and riding ease heretofore unknown in automobiles of any price feature the new line of Plymouth cars. Combining smart new body lines with unprecedented interior luxury, the new Plymouth will go on display in dealer showrooms throughout the United States Saturday, Jan. 13.

Designers have given the Plymouth a striking new silhouette, and refinements in the interior are innovations in the lowest price field. The styling improvements retain the traditional roominess of the cars. Easier to drive and more comfortable, the new cars have greater beauty, more safety features and broader ranges of vision than ever before.

Engineers say the new "Safety-Flow ride" takes the bounce and wallop out of bumps. A new application of hydraulic flow control in the shock absorbers provides a more gradual change of resistance during spring deflections and thus a softer ride when driving on average roads. It also exerts extra resistance on rough roads to a degree where driver and passengers are almost completely freed of the discomfort of being jolted around.

The "Safety-Flow ride" is one of the greatest contributions to driving comfort and safety in recent years, according to D. S. Eddins, president of Plymouth Motor Corp.

"The new Plymouth gives you roadability never before offered in any car," he said. "There is no necessity for steering wheel fatigue to control the car on difficult roads. The driver is no longer required to focus full attention on the condition of the road. He may be more watchful of oncoming traffic, pedestrians, curves, crossroads and other potential hazards."

Eddins called the new development a major step toward restful motoring. More confidence is gained by driving or riding in a new Plymouth with the "Safety-Flow ride," and as a result there is less driver and passenger fatigue, he said.

The lines of the new Plymouth have been beautified. An appearance of massiveness combined with smart streamlining is induced by a new grille, beautifully redesigned front fenders and hood, a wider windshield and a larger rear window. Narrower windshield pillars together with the wider windshield provide additional lateral vision. To utilize fully the greater vision through the new rear window, the rear view mirror is two inches wider. The chair-height front seat and the new design of hood and front fenders permit the driver to see the road nearer the car.

There are numerous mechanical improvements. Windshield wipers are electrically operated, and are of the single-speed, self-parking type.

A unique pressure-vent radiator cap, which has been added as standard equipment, permits the cooling system to be operated at atmospheric pressure during normal driving conditions. Under high-load, high-temperature driving conditions, the new radiator cap provides a pressurized cooling system to allow high coolant temperature without boiling or loss of anti-freeze.

All Plymouth engines now have a built-in by-pass cooling system permitting water circulation and resulting in more uniform temperature throughout the engine during the warm-up period. The new system consists of a passage in the cylinder head and block providing direct access to the water pump, and a choke-type thermostat to regulate coolant flow to the radiator.

The generator output has been raised to 45 amperes, an increase of five amperes, providing greater electrical capacity for the operation of car accessories. The new hand brake "T" control handle is more accessible, and, as on former models, it operates independently of the foot brake as an added safety measure.

In the convertible club coupe, the spare tire is mounted vertically as in other coupe and sedan models, rather than on the trunk floor.

The new Plymouth interiors offer the finest selection of upholstery and trim and the most harmonious color schemes in the company's history. The colors which have been chosen provide throughout the interior a pleasing combination of shades in harmony with the car's exterior color. Designers say the interior is an unparalleled achievement in combining practicality with luxury. Always noted for spaciousness, Plymouth now has even more head room and more room to stretch out in comfort in the rear seat.

To go with the high quality of the upholstery, there is a handsome new instrument panel which features a more convenient grouping of controls, newly shaped instruments and improved coloring and lettering for easier checking while driving.

The wide, deep chair-height seats, the ease of entrance and exit, and all the other traditional Plymouth features for driver and passenger comfort have been retained.

There are nine body-types in the new Plymouth line: the Concord series includes a two-door sedan and a three-passenger coupe as well as the two all-metal utility models, the Suburban and the Savoy; the Cambridge series has a four-door sedan and a club coupe; and the Cranbrook series includes a four-door sedan, a club coupe, and a convertible club coupe.

The Suburban and the Savoy, with their smart, distinctive lines are all-purpose vehicles. They have the beauty and comfort of a sedan, and by simply lowering the rear seat flush with the floor they become sturdy cargo carriers for farmers, salesmen, sportsmen, tourists or others who require large cargo capacity. The Savoy, called the "country-club companion" of the Suburban, provides a greater variety of luxurious interior appointments and more exterior refinements to enhance the car's striking appearance.

Among the "high-priced car" features which are retained are six-cylinder, 97-horsepower engine with a 7 to 1 compression ratio, the combination ignition and starter switch, automatic electric choke, super-cushion tires, safe-guard hydraulic brakes, and safety-rim wheels.

Fire Department Gets Two Calls in Past Week

The Antioch fire department made a run Saturday to the California subdivision at Lake Marie where the gasoline tank of a passenger automobile caught fire at the Charles Meierdick summer home.

The blaze was under control when the department arrived. Chief Edgar Simonsen estimated the loss at $200 for the car and $200 to the garage from which the burning car was pushed.

The Meierdicks were at the place preparing to build a new residence.

On Monday the department was called to the P. G. Recker home at Shannon ave., in Shannon subdivision, Channel lake, where some insulation caught fire from a blow torch used in thawing water pipes. The damage was slight.

Passenger Cars

Steam heated passenger cars, doing away with stoves or hot water heaters, were introduced in 1881. Passenger cars were greatly improved in 1903 by the introduction of the vapor system of heating. With this system, live steam from the steam train line is reduced to vapor at atmospheric pressure and admitted to heating coils inside the car.

Deer Hunting

Accidents often happen because a hunter has just shot at a deer or other game and seeing the bushes move he pulls the trigger before positively identifying his target. Always be certain that it is game you're shooting at—even when you're in the heat of the chase. One man's life is far more valuable than all the game that might get away.

Backward Nations

A Twentieth Century Fund survey points out that China and India, with 40 per cent of the world's population, account for only 2 per cent of its manufacturing and 8.4 per cent of its imports of manufactured goods.

English Newspapers

On account of the newsprint shortage in England, penny newspapers have been cut back to six pages since wartime paper restrictions were lifted, and three penny papers, such as the London Times, have to cut back two pages per day.

WHAT A DIFFERENCE!

THERE'S a decided difference between Property Damage Insurance and Collision Insurance. The former covers your legal liability for any damage your car may do to the property of others. The latter covers the damage done to your own car. You need both policies! Get them here.

First Potatoes

It is believed North America's first potatoes were brought from the Bermudas to Virginia in 1621.

Re-Dyeing Prints

Is it possible to re-dye printed fabrics? Yes, and the result often creates a highly desirable color effect. The print design, however, cannot be removed and will show through even when dyed black. Darker dye-colors are recommended by the bureau, therefore, so as to subordinate the original print pattern as much as possible.

Accidental Deaths

In 1949 there was one accidental death in 423 families, one disabling injury in four families, and the budget was nicked for $105 per family.

Watermelon Juice

A leading can manufacturer and a Louisiana canning company have developed a process for preserving fresh watermelon juice. The juice will be canned for the use of sufferers from nephrosis, a kidney disease, and will be distributed only on request of physicians.

Warlike Diet

At the depth of wartime shortages, the Dutch were forced to eat large numbers of their bulbs—a diet that was far from popular, since the bulbs are non-nourishing, unappetizing and contain a distorting acid.

Trumpeter Swan

Trumpeter swans have shown an increase under the protection of the federal government.

Retail Lumber Dealers

There are estimated to be 25,000 retail lumber dealers in the United States.
